Attention Parents:

In order for World Karate / After School Martial Arts to comply with the State of Virginia licensing requirements, please read and become aware of the following information.

World Karate / After School Martial Arts is NOT licensed by the State as a childcare ,day care or any other kind of licensed childcare facility. We are only a martial arts center that provide school tutoring of "child care". Our current curriculum includes martial arts classes beginning after school and ending in the evening.

World Karate has 18 years experience (since 1984) and has trained thousands of students. Please be advised that all students of World Karate may come and go, to and from classes or the premises as they please with permission from parents.

I have read, understand and approve of this information and facility.
